Local and long distance moving services are available for your office Toronto move. What are the first steps? The first thing we do is send a professional estimator to the move site in Toronto and surrounding area, this of course is free of charge. He will then evaluate the volume, access and nature of the items to be moved in order to choose the adequate equipment for your Toronto movers to execute the project as safely, effectively and economically as possible. What will be required, 1 ton truck, 5 ton truck, how many Toronto Movers, power tailgate, special ramp? He will assess your needs and choose the best solution for both the Toronto moving company and the client. Preparing Your Toronto Office Move: Move preparation is a very important part of every office relocation. A meeting with your staff is recommended to discuss the relocation strategy. It is very important to have a plan for office moves, especially in the Toronto area where traffic congestion is common and time is very limited. A map of the office is useful for the Toronto movers, they need to know where to pick up items and where to drop them off. It is a good idea to make a map of the office and label every major furniture items. Computers and equipment must be unplugged in advanced, garbage bins emptied, boxes closed, drawers taped and filling cabinets locked. All pictures and fixtures must be taken off the walls. However, we can also do all of these tasks for you but it will add marginally to the final cost of the move, please contact us for further details. We also offer computer installation and software reinstalling services.
- Transport of computers and sensitive information: Moving your computers and electronic equipment is done with our special padded, reinforced and sealed specialized Toronto Moving Trucks. That way in addition to being padded and boxed, your equipment is "extra" safe. The transport of your files in Toronto will be done in reinforced file boxes that are classified and organized in order to make things easier to find after move execution. For any other questions regarding your upcoming office move in the Toronto metropolitan area, please don't hesitate to contact us. We also offer long distance office moving services. You can trust Westsend, Toronto's leading moving company at your service.
